RAIN THE CAUSE OF UPSETS.

BROOKDALE NYMPH THE ONLY WINNER FOR THE TALENT AT GRAVESEND

"Big Tim" Sullivan Regrets That He Did Not Back the Lucky Ace High-Conditions of the Roseben-Lady Amelia Race.

New York, September 20 .- The special race to include Roseben and Lady Amelia has been settled with conditions that throw it open to any owner who cares to try for the purse. The conditions of the event are to be as follows: "For three-yearolds and upwards, $2,500 added; $500 to enter and $50 to declare; weight for age, distance about six furlongs, open to all, Roseben and Lady Amelia to go or no race." The proposed sweepstakes was or no race." The proposed sweepstakes was chief subject of gossip at the Gravesend track this afternoon, and it will undoubtedly draw one of the largest crowds ever seen at the old course. The race will take place next Thursday.

A steady downfall of rain before the races this afternoon practically soaked the track proper. It was made to order for horses with bad legs and tender feet, yet the big card was not materially reduced by scratches. Lady Amelia was the conspicuous absentee in the opening sprint won by Brookdale Nymph, the only successful favorite of the day. Five outsiders then came along and scored in succession and, as only Flyback's immediate connections profited by his victory in the last, the betting public had one of its bad days. The main event on the program was the Oceanview Handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth, for three-yearolds exclusively. Barney Schreiber's colt, Nealon, was the topweight, but could do no better than game third to the lightly-weighted winner of Pequest, and the improving Hot Toddy The uncertain Flambeau filly received plenty of support at 25 to 1. The Sullivan family won two races today with Ace High and Samuel H. Harris. Both were at unusually long odds in the betting, considering the well known plunging proclivities of their owners. "Big Tim" felt exceedingly glum after the two-year-old's victory and deplored his ill luck in not having a bet on him at the profitable price of 15 to 1. The second Sullivan winner carried only a small stable commission as it was thought that the Sir Walter four-year-old was not keyed up for the long journey

ACCOUNTANT CHAMPION THREE-YEAR-OLD. Career of the Son of Filigrane and Reckon, Which Has Won $99,000 in Two Seasons.

When Accountant won the Annual Champion Stakes on the last day of the autumn meeting of Island Jockey Club his winnings in money for this year then amounted to the big sum of $83,570. He has a number of valuable engagements remaining and if he continues in good form more than probable that he will win more than $100,000 in 1906. The Hindoo Stakes to be run next Wednesday, is as certain to be won by him as anything can be certain in horse racing and will net him fully $10,000. Success is what counts and Accountant will be justly deemed the champ three-year-old, even if he is not the best. There is no doubt that Burgomaster was easily his master in the year, but Burgomaster is in retire ment from which he may not emerge, and disabled horses do not count against sound ones actively a two-year-old, Accountant did not rank in the first flight although a stake winner and a hardy courageous colt. He started in fourteen races, won two, was second twice, third twice, and ran unplaced eight times. His first start was for a purse at Sheepshead Bay, June 15, for which he ran fourth to Timber, McKittredge and Sufficiency June 28, he ran third to Yankee Consul and Phidias at five and a half furlongs, in 1:07, beaten a head His first success was in the Montauk Stakes at Brighton Beach. Here, with 107 pounds up, he beat George C. Bennett, 127; Ormondale, 107, and two more at three-quarters, in 1:14%. This was run July 19, and three days later he achieved the principal success of his two-year-old career when he won the rich Brighton Junior Stakes. He was at 20 to 1 in the betting, but with 122 pounds up won easily from Pegasus, 107; Don Diego, 125; McKittredge, 107; Albert F., 107; Oyama, 108, and Timber, 112, running the three-quarters in After that he ran unplaced in the Saratoga Special, Grand Union Hotel Stakes, Futurity, Great Eastern Handicap, Holly Handicap and Brighton Produce Stakes and was third to Vendor and Voorhees for the Waldorf Stakes; second to Lady Na varre for the Prospect Handicap and second to Kinleydale for a purse at Belmont Park.

This year Accountant began his three-year-old career May 1, by defeating Tommy Waddell, Emergency and three others at Jamaica in a three-quarters h for a purse, winning by a nose. He carried 120 pounds and ran the distance in 1:14%. His next start was for the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont He got off poorly and ran unplaced. Better things were at hand, however, and starting for the Withers Stakes, May 19, he led all the way and won by a head from Bohemian after a bitterly contested drive through the stretch. Clark Griffith was third, six lengths away and The Quail, Juggler and Belmere ran unplaced. The mile was covered the well proved fact that many of the best race in 1:38$, a grand performance with 126 pounds up and the fastest Withers ever run. This perform ance at once marked Accountant a crack three-yearold and greatly improved over his two-year-old form. In his next race he met his master in a colt that would probably have remained unbeaten this year had be not fallen lame. This was Burgo master and the race was for the Belmont Stakes. Burgomaster at once opened a big gap and striding along without ever being fully extended won in canter by four lengths, The Quail finishing second a head in front of Accountant, because the latter tired in the stretch and lost several lengths by a The mile and three-eighths route of the race was covered in 2:20, a record for the event. The unplaced ones were Pegasus, Bohemian and Cassini.

was in the Jockey Club Weight for Age Race, run at Belmont Park, June 4. Whimsical, then in rare took the lead at the start and was neve headed in a remarkably fast run race. She traversed the first mile in 1:39 and finished out the mile and eighth in 1:514, winning by a length and a half from Accountant. The latter ran second throughout and finished a length in front of The Pickel. Water Light was the only other starter. The result was anticipated, Whimsical being a 9 to 10 favorite at post time, and Accountant was not disgraced. His next race was for an overnight handicap at Gravesend, June S, distance a mile and a sixteenth. Carrying 113 pounds he won by a head from Logistilla, 105, in 1:463. Tradition, 123, was third and Confederate, Garnish, Samson, Coy Maid, Larabie and Phil Finch ran unplaced. At the same track, June 13, he took up 121 pounds and defeated Garnish, 98; Maxnar, 105, and seven others in a similar race at the same distance in 1:472, quite a high-class performance. Up to this time he had run as the property of W. H. Brown, but he was now sold to James B. Brady and his next this was in the colors of his new owner.

This was at Sheepshead Bay, in the Tidal Stakes, at a mile and a quarter. He was a 7 to 10 favorite and, leading all the way, won easily by a length and a half with Bohemian second and Bull's Eye third. Kuroki, Pegasus, Holscher and Royal Sceptre ran unplaced. The track was slow and the race in 2:10. It was worth $14,550 to the victor's owner. At the same meeting, June 30, he was badly beaten in the Advance Stakes, at a mile and three-eighths, running unplaced. It was won by Flip Flap in such extremely fast time as 2:174 with Whimsical second and The Quail, a good, but unlucky colt, third. The unplaced ones were Cairngorm, Sir Huon, Accountant and Bohemian. As it was a weight for age race all ran on equal terms. Whimsical ran the first mile in 1:38%, with Accountant at her head and the latter tired badly in the stretch. His next was attended with better results. This when he won the Lawrence Realization, run July 10. He was favorite at 12 to 5 and won, but barely got home first by a head after a long, hard drive the stretch with Entree. Bull's Eve a length for second place and Ormondale McKittredge and Bohemian ran unplaced. 2:48, was fast and the race worth $15,310 to the

He was not raced again until August 4, when he on the Brighton Derby. It was a gift for him and, as a 1 to 4 favorite should, he won in a canter from Samson, with Albert F. third and Flimnap unplaced. August 23, he won the Saratoga Gallavant by three-quarters of a length, McKittredge being a distant third. His success in the Annual Champion Stakes was achieved so recently as to be fresh in the minds of all admirers of racing. In all. Accountant's career to date shows the follow

YEARLING TRIALS AT MONTGOMERY PARK

J. O. Keene and J. C. Cahn at Memphis to Inspec Their Young Thoroughbreds-The List.

Memphis, Tenn., September 20.-J. O. Keene Cahn today tried out their yearlings, which have been broken and are in quarters at Montgomery Park. J. O. Keene has, all told, thirty-five young Three are the get of his old campaigner Braw Lad, which died at Keenland Farm near Lex ington, Ky., last spring. It was the winnings of Braw Lad added to savings from his salary as a trainer in Russia that enabled Keene to buy farm. The remaining thirty-two yearlings bought at the auction sales at Sheepshead Bay during the summer and autumn meetings of the Island Jockey Club at an aggregate cost The majority of them came from J. B. Haggin's Rancho del Paso consignment. all well bred and are, as a whole, a good looking lot. The highest priced one of the collection is the half sister to Heaslip and she is a racy looking miss. She ran a quarter today better than 25, but the best work was done by the sister to Margaret She got over the quarter of a mile in 242 Mr. Keene will ship these youngsters to New Or

It will be interesting to follow the careers of this collection of youngsters, for the reason that they represent the first step in an effort to demonstrate the truth or fallacy of a conclusion arrived at by Mr. Keene after a study of the lottery-like conditions attending the selection of yearlings. With horses have been bought cheaply as yearlings, and that many of the poorest performers on the turi have been sold for extravagant sums in their first years, as a basis for his plans and the fact that it costs the same to keep and develop a yearling bought for $200 as it does one procured at an penditure of $2,000 as an additional thread to his line of thought, he proceeded to buy those indi viduals which appeared likely to him, yet not par-ticularly fancied by many others. He made up his mind not to go over $1,000 for any one yearling and east his average at about $300. He reasons that if he can develop even one superior racehorse out o thirty-two, he will have been sustained in his conclusion and will have a profit on his investment above and beyond what the remaining thirty-one may bring him in stakes and purses. Here is list of the thirty-two youngsters bought out of the

They are all the get of the stallion Bitter Root with the produce of which horse Mr. Cahn has had more than passing success as two-year-olds and is firm in the belief that it is more profitable to breed, develop and race, than it is to buy from other breeders, though he would take over a likely year ling from another farm did he fancy the individual and price. Ormonde's Right, the "muzzled horse," was a 4 to 5 favorite, but the real support went to Sir Ralph. He won by a head from Blue Buck, also heavily backed. J. As usual there were several falls in the steeple-chase, but happily no riders were injured. Opuntia ran out followed by Goldenway, Knobhampton and Greenfield. Broadcloth, John A. ROBERT SIEVIER WRITES HIS LIFE'S HISTORY

Scepter's Banished Owner Recounts His Racing Experiences in an Interesting Volume.

Few men, perhaps, have had so varied an experience as Robert Standish Sievier, whose autobiography has just been published in England. Born in 1860, he very early adopted the strenuous life, and at the age of sixteen, set out on an adventurous career which reads more like fiction than sober fact. At seventeen he saw active service in the Kaffir war. spending two years in South Africa before returning England and adopting the stage as a profession. But racing always appealed strongly to him, and he eventually decided that he would tempt fortune on the turf, a decision materially assisted by the winning of $15,000 over the victory of Isonomy in the Manchester Cup of 1880, but before the end of the year this money had been lost. However, the following year saw Sievier, as soon as he attained his majority, fairly launched on his turf career, and, being attended by luck at the commencement, so ran up a lengthy winning balance as a backer, only it again as a layer. But the winning and losing of huge sums did not seem to upset him in the

ast. As he himself says:
"If I am not a bold speculator, I am nothing. Had I introduced commercial instincts, and treated my racing career in a purely commercial spirit, I might today have been a rich man, for I have at different times acquired three large fortunes on the turf, each amounting to over $1,000,000,"

Going out to Australia, Sievier created some sensation by instituting the English system of betting and settling over each race, the system in vogue there being that of doubles and trebles. His experience of racing in Australia taught him many things, amongst which was that if bookmakers here were licensed, as they are over there, it would give them a far better standing, and would knock welsh ing out of existence. As a result of his first year's racing in the antipodes he won a sum of $350,000.

Sievler has a pretty wit, and cannot help having a good many digs at the managements of the various race meetings in England. For instance, in speaking of a horse which won four races in one day in Australia, he says: "Such an exploit would be next to impossible in England at such meetings as Ascot. market, etc., even granted one owned the horse capable of accomplishing this extraordinary feat, for owing to the extremely complex and tangled wording of the many different conditions and penalties, it would be almost a miracle to be able to discover what should be the correct weight to carry in the next race in time to weigh out for it."

But by far the most interesting part of the whole book is the life history of the great mare Sceptre. and her story is told in such a manner as betrays the intense love Sievier had for her-a love shared by the great British public, for Sceptre was every bit as great a favorite as Pretty Polly was after ward to become. It may be mentioned that wher asked for his opinion as to which was the better, he has invariably replied: "They were both too good to be compared." Her career is set out as only one man could possibly do it, and the various incidents of her successes are recalled without any tax on the memory as the scenes are again brought to mind. The joy of owning such an animal could hardly have been surpassed. What, then, must have been Sievier's feelings when compelled to part with her?

Considerable space is devoted to going over the recent cause celebre, which ended in Slevier's consection with the turf being severed, and his personal remarks thereon lose nothing in the making.

In the putting together of his autobiography, so as to make it an interesting story from beginning to end, Sievier has shown literary ability of a high order and the attention of the reader is firmly fixed from start to finish. Many racy little stories are interspersed here and there with good effect, and all those who were interested in one of the best mares who ever trod the British turf should read the life of her owner.

Winner—Ch. f, by King Gold—Sidda Hallow (trahed by W. Whelen).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Miss Leeds got off running freely and had a couple of lengths' advantage before they had gone a six teenth, set a fast pace and, after racing Cicely into defeat, had enough left to stail off Olive Leaf's challenge. The latter was outrun for the first half, but finished fast and gamely. Oleasa was forced back soon after the start, but closed a big gap on the far turn and finished gamely under punishment. Cicel quit in the last furlong after running well to the stretch. Woggle Bug ran well. Conde and Fire Fangran much below their true form.

Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Royal W was reserved in behind Broadcloth and delayed his run until well around the far turn, then came f the stretch run and outstayed the latter in the final drive. Broadcloth was hard to restrain in the stages and set a terrific pace, but tired after going six furlongs and succumbed in the final stride. ford was outrun all the way and by no means ran to his best form.

Gold Run fenced in faultless fashion and easily outfooted his opponents after Pemberton released bim from restraint. Wool Dealer ran in much improved form, but tired in the last quarter.  Brookdale Nymph far outclassed the others and, being sent along from the start, quickly assumed the lead, holding sway without much effort to the end. Bohemia improved her position on the last turn, trew away with a good lead of the others for second place, but tired at the end and barely lasted long enough.

 Orllene made a strenuous effort to overhaul the leader from start to finish and ran a game race. Watergrass was badly outpaced in the early running, but closed up well at the end. Belle of Portland got away flatfooted and had no chance at the start. Lucy Young is a fast non-stayer.

was forced to bump his way through on the inside and could not get up, but put up a grand effort. Nealon ran in close pursuit of the winner to the stretch, where he tired, but struggled in a very game third. Good Luck was shut off on the first turn and closed up rapidly on the outside and loomed up menacingly on the last turn, but tired at the end. Zienap went well, but failed to stay the journey. Lotus Eater was never dangerous. Inquisitor has seemingly developed into a non-stayer, or has staled from severe racing.

three-fifths of a second of the same time, has been more than a "meal ticket" for W. T. Anderson.

Boola was bred in the stud of the late William C.

Whitney and she ran her first three races in the colors of Harry Payne Whitney. The only money she brought him out of these races was $300 for her third in the Hudson Stakes at Gravesend, May 26. After this performance she was sold to W.

T. Anderson, who took her to Buffalo and has since raced her on the Northern Circuit. For her present owner she has won eight races, been second twice, third twice and unplaced twice, bringing him $2,390 in purses and, it is related, a small fortune from the betting ring. Her one third and two races un-placed for Mr. Whitney makes her total of starts seventeen and her total earnings $2,690.

This sounds small in comparison to the possibili-ties of eight races won on the New York tracks or what some less speedy horses have taken in the same time and with probably not so much effort, but in this respect Boola is an improvement on her beautifully bred dam. Orthia was by Ormonde, out of Muta, she by Wildidle, out of Mutiny. Or-thia was the property of W. O'B. Macdonough until in Kentucky and bred her to Ballyhoo Bey, Boola being her first produce. Orthia started nine times and won two races, both at half a mile, the first over a sloppy track in 51½, and the other over a fast track in 494. In this race one of the horse-behind her was Yellow Tail, and it was considered short a race.

meritorious in any horse that could get to him in Francisco and it caused Orthia's owner to send her east. There she was a failure. The total of Or-thia's winnings was $625. Muta, the grandam of Boola, had the distinction of winning the California placed four times.

Boola has never been asked to race at a distance greater than five-eighths of a mile. Whether she can carry her speed further is therefore problemat ical. Her owner undoubtedly has a perfect knowledge of her capabilities and has chosen her races wisely. Her sire and her dam were essentially sprinters, while her dam's sire (Ormonde), and her dam (Muta), demonstrated beyond question that they could stay a route in fast time. Boola may win at distances above a mile, but it is hardly likely that She has won under 115 pounds, but she seems to have a greater fancy for 110 or less.

At the dispersal sale of the stallions and brood-mares belonging to the Whitney estate in October 1904, Orthia was sold to E. R. Thomas for $1,500. If she has a two-year-old to race next year it will be the get of Yankee.

Old Honesty and Dainty Dame are out of training for this year. They were shipped to Lexington Wednesday and will be wintered at the Kentucky Association track.

Stalwart has been shipped to Kentucky to go into the stud. He will stand next season at Iroquois Farm, which was purchased by Senator J. W Bailey after the death of Captain James B. Clay.

W. B. Jennings will leave New York for California shortly after the Gravesend meeting closes. Oaks at Sacramento and two days later walking over for the California Derby. During her three seasons and other horses to Oakland for the coming winter on the turf she started fourteen times, won four meeting.
